

SUPPLIERS PAGE

NACO has a membership of over 500 - council officers who make regular purchasing decisions for items relating to civic office as diverse as condolence books, limousines, chains of office, corporate gifts, commissioning of training, catering supplies and engagement of event staff.

This webpage features suppliers who have been brought to our attention by our members as having provided a good service.

Whilst NACO cannot specifically endorse any of the suppliers listed we do seek feedback from members before renewing on an annual basis.

Suppliers of Promotional Products

Impamark-promotional-merchandise.co.uk

The logo for LogoCloth features the word "Logo" in a bold, green, sans-serif font, followed by "Cloth" in a smaller, orange, cursive font.

Suppliers of bespoke embroidered presentation cloths

Suppliers of Civic Insignia and Medals

naco.uk.com

WEBSITE SUPPLIERS PAGE FURTHER INFORMATION

The National Association of Civic Officers (NACO) is the country's largest and most active organisation for civic staff and is well regarded amongst practitioners, government departments and think tanks. It exists to develop, share and promote best practice in civic offices in the UK and to encourage training of civic staff.

Our membership stands at over 500 and includes representation from major cities, counties, districts and boroughs and smaller town councils. Our members are decision makers in the purchase of a wide range of goods and services relating to civic office – from condolence books to limousines, chains of office to corporate gifts, commissioning of training to catering supplies and engagement of event staff.

Our recently re-designed and re-launched website (naco.uk.com) includes a Suppliers Page and there is an opportunity to be featured there for a small annual fee.

Because we only offer space on the Suppliers Page to those who are already providing a tested and valued service to our members, your inclusion will bring you to the attention of their colleagues across the UK.

For a single annual fee of £100, your logo will feature on our Suppliers Page, with a link to your own website, bringing you to within one click of hundreds of potential new customers.

We hope that we have captured your interest, but know you will want to learn more, so in the first instance please e-mail secretary@naco.uk.com with your contact details, so that the member of our Executive Committee, with responsibility for this aspect of our work, can get in touch with you.

We hope to work with you in the near future

naco.uk.com

Potential advertisers: Would you like your logo featured here, with a link to your website, to promote your goods and services to our members? Please e-mail: secretary@naco.uk.com with your contact details, so that the member of our Executive Committee, with responsibility for this aspect of our work, can get in touch with you.

Members: If you have received great service from a supplier and think they would benefit from inclusion on this page then please e-mail: secretary@naco.uk.com with their contact details, so that the member of our Executive Committee, with responsibility for this aspect of our work, can get in touch with them. Please use the same e-mail address to give praise to or voice concerns about any of the listed suppliers, so that we can be as sure as possible that we are only listing the best.

